Meeting Held by Republican Candidates in Weber County.

The candidates nominated on the Republican toket at the recent convention met in the county building last evening for the purpose of selecting a chairman, secretary and county central committee. After several hours, during which there were some warm debates, it was seen that the candidates were hopelessly split and an adjournment had to be taken until today or tomorrow without any selections being made. After the meeting several stated, however, that the public might draw its own inferences. Those who understand the local situation take this statement to mean that the machine or-

Smelter Nearly Ready.

The new plant of the Utah Smelting company at the Ogden Hot springs is rapidly nearing completion. It is expected that ores will begin to arrive next week, at which time it is also expected that the transmission line from Brigham City will be completed. Manager Bela Kadish announces that there is plenty of ore in sight and there is little doubt but ore in sight and there is little doubt but what the smelter will have all the busi-ness that it will be able to take care of.

OGDEN CITY COUNCIL.

Brief Session at Which Routine Matters Were Considered.

The city council held a brief session last evening and disposed of a number of rou-tine matters in a remarkably short space of time. Claims aggregating $3,101.91 were allowed. Eight hundred dollars was voted for the improving of Thirty-third street and Grand avenue, and $500 was appropriated for repairs to the city jail. A petition was received requesting the removal of the signboard at Twenty-sixth street of the signboard at Twenty-sixth street and Wall avenue on the ground that it is a nuisance, and the matter was referred to the city attorney for a legal opinion as to the council's authority. The resolution was adopted providing against the blocking of railroad crossings for more than five minutes at any one time. It was or-dered that an addition of eight acres be added to the City cemetery
